SIDELIGHT FLASHES ON SOCIAL MIRROR

Events Monday and Friday Nights of Next Week---The Helberg Farewell
---Mrs. Hart a Vote Winner.

I had hoped to have given to my readers, today, all the details of the several events now in course of preparation, and I'm somewhat disappointed, as I'm sure you will be, too, reader, mine, that another week must elapse before dates and other facts are sufficiently complete to present to the public. Oh, well, after all, it is as well, perhaps, to remain in pleasant anticipation of the somethings yet to be told.

Interest this week and for several days of next centers, of course, in the

Entertainment and Dance

Details of which, you'll recall, I gave to you last week. Friday night of next week, October 2nd, is the date named for the affair, and it is to take place at Union Hall. Repetition of the worthy object for which the combined efforts of the Woman's Club, the Chamber of Commerce and the Sonoma Valley Public Schools are to devote, is unnecessary, as residents of the valley are fully cognizant of the fact that the proceeds are to defray the travelling expenses of the prize winners in the Tomato Growing Contest.

The program--not quite complete at this writing--will be of exceptional merit, comprising vocal solos, duet and quintette, and also readings by favorite local talent. Interesting moving pictures are to be shown, too, thus insuring a varied and splendid entertainment.

On the conclusion of the program dancing will be inaugurated and a general good time prevail. Refreshments are to be served by a number of the Club's energetic members. Mrs. G. H. Hotz, assisted by Mesdames R. L. Watt and H. F. Bates, have charge of the coffee and sandwiches; Mrs. F. T. Duhring, assisted by Mrs. C. T. Ryland and Miss Meta Stofen, are to preside at the punch table, and candy is to be sold by Mrs. Woodworth, assisted by Mesdames H. H. Eaton and H. J. Wicker and Miss Minnie Cook.

Mesdames S. P. Woodworth, G. H. Hotz, F. T. Duhring, M. Clewe, J. D. Wagon and Carrie H. Burlingame represent the Woman's Club in this meritorious undertaking.

Woman's Auxiliary Meet

Chairman Mrs. Dora Stofen and Vice-Chairman Mrs. H. J. Wicker attended the meeting of the County Auxiliary Board of the Panama-Pacific Exposition held at Santa Rosa, Wednesday of last week. The County Auxiliary is in a very flourishing condition, and the sentiment prevailed among the sub-chairmen present that in each city and town efforts would be put forth to increase the membership of this organization, which is not only to insure the welfare and comfort of women visitors from afar, but also to promote the interests of California.

Yesterday afternoon, at the City Hall, a meeting of the Sonoma branch was held, too late, however, for a report to appear this week. Ways and means of increasing the membership was the proposed discussion, and the ladies have avowed the intention of taking up the work with renewed energy and enthusiasm.

Interest in the Auxiliary abated somewhat during the summer, but as the time draws near for the opening of the Exposition, the ladies are awakening to a realization of the good to be accomplished by the organization, hope to make this fact apparent to many more of the ladies of this valley, and prove an inducement to those who are not members to unite with the Auxiliary and enjoy its benefits.

Monday, Sept. 28th

Is the date on which the Congregational choir will entertain the public with an "Old Plantation Concert," at the Congregational Church. The program, as I told you last week, is to feature many of the delightful characters famed in Southern song and story. The colored male quartette, the irrepressible and mirth-provoking Topsy, who is so well worth seeing: Adolphus Morning Glory, one of the cutest of the pianinies, one to sing, and old Auntie Sue will plead for sympathy with her tale of woe. Uncle Joe, the hero and pride of the plantation, will be an attraction, while Ol' Marsa and Ol' Missus, with their three charming daughters are to grace the occasion.

No regular admission fee is to be charged, but a silver collection will be taken up, and later in the evening coffee and sandwiches are to be served for just one dime.

Reader, mine, don't forget the date, for to do so would be to miss an evening of genuine enjoyment. Why, to hear the darkey male chorus sing "Dese Bones Shall Rise Again," will, in itself, be a musical treat.

A Farewell Surprise

Was tendered Miss Valeria Helberg, at the pleasant suburban home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Helberg, south of town, Friday night of last week, prior to her departure for San Francisco. The affair was, in actual reality, a complete surprise, creating no end of merriment for the pleasure-invaders, as well as the recipient of the honor.

The hours were happily spent in the indulgence of the several favorite pastimes--games, cards and dancing--which result in the speeding of time fleetly and enjoyably. Delicious refreshments were also served.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Helberg, Mr. and Mrs. D. Volquardson, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Dobbel, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Simmons; Mesdames Phillip Bill, Sr., L. M. Elrov, A. H. Skinner, E. Johansen, Geo. Breitenbach; Misses Virginia Picetti, Dorothy Dobbel, Alice Rubke, Katinka Norrmensen, Alma Bill, Gladys Simmons, Valeria, Marie and Marguerite Helberg, Helene Volquardson, Ethel Evans, Etta and Gertrude Johansen; Messrs. John and Louis Picetti, Will and Fred Helberg, Alfred Warriner, Harry and Arthur Coops, and Clyde Johansen.

Miss Helberg took her departure Monday morning, for the Bay City, where she has entered the Habnemann Hospital, to train for a nurse. She is one of the most popular girls of the younger set, with a large circle of friends, by whom she will be greatly missed.

The Catholic Entertainment

Of which I told you, some weeks ago, is receiving the attention of the ladies, now that mid-fall is almost here, for it is desired to hold the affair before the rainy season mars the pleasure of anticipation. The ladies will decide at a meeting to be held tomorrow evening on the date. Several favor a Halloween festival, while others incline to the earlier date, October 24th, as being more propitious. It is quite likely that the fête, for which the ladies are planning, may be a two days' event, with a Saturday matinee for children, and evenings of jollity for grown-ups. Complete details will be given next week.

Mrs. Edward H. Hart

Who is campaigning the district in the interest of her distinguished husband, the Republican nominee for Congress, will prove a strong factor in contributing to the success of Mr. Hart. During her brief sojourn in Sonoma, last week, at the meeting of ladies which she addressed, Mrs. Hart convinced her auditors that the gentleman whose name she proudly bears, is the right man to represent the First Congressional District, and her reasoning and arguments were sound and incontrovertible. Mrs. Hart is a charming and highly cultured woman, of delightful personality, and wins the confidence of her auditors by her simple and natural manner. She is a native of California, born in the gold-famed county of El Dorado. The Harts have an interesting family of four lovely children, the youngest of whom--twins, a son and daughter--made their advent into the happy home circle on the eve of election, two years ago.

Visit Exposition Grounds

Mrs. Carrie H. Burlingame, president of the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club, and Mrs. Dora Stofen, chairman of the Sonoma branch of the Auxiliary Board of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, availed themselves of the privilege afforded members of the organization to visit the Exposition grounds on the third Saturday of each month. This is but one of the many advantages to be derived by the women who affiliate with the Auxiliary.

IDEAL LOCATION FOR THE HOME-MAKER

Mrs. Grace B. Caukin Tells Why to Peerless Sonoma County Belongs
This Envious Distinction.

"Farming as a Vocation for Women"

Is the title of an article, which appears in a recent issue of "Everywoman," a San Francisco publication, from the pen of Mrs. Grace B. Caukin, who was recently appointed Receiver of Public Money for the Land Department of the Department of the Interior.

"We read of glowing prospects, painted by real estate agents, from all over California, telling of the wonderful success women are making out of farming," comments Everywoman. "Maybe they are, but we say: It is little less than tragic for a woman who has spent years of her life working hard, denying herself comforts, and saving a little money, to sink that money in something from which she is not fairly sure of a good return."

The advice of Mrs. Caukin is good and sound, and we believe with her that no woman should undertake an isolated country life alone. Some kind of community life, with a few women of equal tastes banded together, would be far more apt to solve the problem. For, there is no earthly doubt that women can find health and happiness on a California farm, provided the right farm is selected and the right foundation laid. The richness of soil, the fine, health-giving climate and the beauty of scenery are all in its favor.

Mrs. Caukin writes as follows: "In considering farm life, a woman must first of all plan and the kind of farming she prefers. Under the head of location comes the geographical consideration, which is a matter for each person to work out for herself. My experiences have taken me through the Central part of California, from the Pacific Ocean to the foothills of the Sierras, from Monterey to Sonoma, and the last named place suits my individual tastes.

Location, Climate, Capital, Method of Work,

"She must consider also

or, if she prefers city life, to some large city, and to her neighbors. The average city woman thinks she can live without neighbors; but when she finds herself on a country road, far from the nearest house, and for some reason her companions are detained in town, the only other protection being a valuable dog, and that dog always is away at that particular time, or when she wakes up in the night, realizing that no human being could hear her, even if she calls for help, she is apt to be a bit startled.

"Women who were born and raised in the country are generally neighborly sort of souls, but the city woman, coming with her different ideas, holds aloof, and the neighbors leave her alone as she seems to so desire. Any one of them would be probably only too glad to assist her over her difficult place were she to understand these conditions.

"Under location also comes the Question of Marketing.

That is another reason Sonoma County has appealed to me particularly. Since Uncle Sam has installed the wonderful parcels post system, I find that Easter farmers are hastening to take advantage of it, but we of the West still feel we must sell to the nearest country store. There is a wide field, certainly, for any woman within fifty miles of San Francisco to use the parcels-post when she plans her farm.

Climate Is To Be Very Serious Considered, for we have every imaginable kind of climate in the State of California. We find some who are satisfied in the rather moist, foggy climate, and others who prefer the desert. I would advise any woman to look carefully at any piece of property before buying, and if she is particularly wise she will live for about three months in the nearest town to the farm, which she is about to buy, thereby learning the true situation for herself. When we come to learn to depend upon ourselves, and not upon the advice of the men who have to make a sale, there will be fewer tragedies in farm life.

The average man who considers farming knows that he can depend upon the assistance of a wife and many times of children. In considering the purchase of a farm it is hardly advisable for one woman to attempt to buy a place, manage it and work it living entirely alone. This may sound like treason, but it is the result of experience. "It is not advisable for any woman to consider farming anything less than a and the question of capital is a serious one. If she prefers a place already improved, she will then have to figure on a small initial investment, but remember that every farming implement and every household utensil means money to spend, and it has been demonstrated that in but few instances an income is not to be considered in less than a year. There have been wild stories of how vast fortunes have been made within a few months, but we are speaking of the average woman and average farm under average conditions. It requires as much brains to be a successful farmer as it does to run the average millinery store or other business which women consider themselves fitted to; and remember always: it is a business.

"Individuals must decide, according to their individual taste, the Kind of Farming

they prefer. Some women will take fifty baby turkeys a day old from the incubator and raise every one, while another woman will take a like batch and within a week they are all dead. It is a question of adaptability. Perhaps the woman who would have lost the turkeys would have made a success of fruit raising, or perhaps the woman who could grow fruit could not successfully realize any profit, if for some reason her fruit did not reach the market. She would not understand the art of canning and preserving. Of course an all-around general knowledge is valuable, but a course of farming with our State University is worth more than all the experiences of other people. I would advise any woman who has the capital, but who cannot take the time to attend the university, to take at least the correspondence course in farming.

"It is well to Make Haste Slowly.

In this day when women are thinking for themselves and planning their own futures, there is no reason why any woman with the average amount of brains, a little training, a small capital, and plenty of determination, cannot make a success of farming. If two women will consider and plan and work together, if each is willing to allow for the other's peculiarities, there is no reason why such a proposition could not be made an absolute success, and I look forward to the time when all over this State we will find farms owned, worked and profitably so by women who today are wasting their energy and lives behind counters or desks.

We do not know how to conduct ourselves wisely, but we do not believe God knows. We do not want God's way, but we do want our own and we follow it as Cain did. Suppose I say, "I do not believe the Bible gives God's advice to men ever entering into an untried future." We might know something of the past, but the future is God's. My friend people were very angry with Galileo for saying the earth was round. They believed it was flat. It is round no matter what you believe. You need God's help to live wisely. You can't help yourself out of trouble.

X. P. S. C. E. will meet at 7 p. m. Mr. McAllister will conduct the services.
Evening service at 8 p. m. Everyone is invited who has no other church home.

To be Held Tomorrow, Sunday,
September 26th., at Oak Grove

All is in readiness for tomorrow (Sunday) Sept. 27th, when the Sonoma Drum Corps will give its annual picnic at Oak Grove.

The dance hall has been tastefully decorated, and the floor will be in the finest possible condition. The members of the Sonoma Boys' Band have been practicing physical and vocal culture during the past fortnight, increasing chest proportions and the endurance of respiratory organs, for the day will be a very strenuous one for the musicians, who are to provide music for dancing.

In connection with dancing, other pastimes will contribute to the general good time, and will include games of various descriptions, foot races and other sports. Gate prizes are also to be given.

Sergeant Fred Hansen will have all his drummer boys in uniform, tomorrow, and a drill will be given. The boys make a splendid appearance in their handsome suits, and have acquired a commendable degree of proficiency under the able training of their leader, Fred T. Hansen. The Corps comprises the following named: James Modini, Victor Beretta, Will and Fred Helberg, Louis Picetti, N. Maffei, Joe Andrieux, Charles Kelly, James Maffei, Alfred Warriner, Jos. Keiser, Ed Peterson, Leonard Thomas, Harry Quartoroli, Henry Anselmi. The committees in charge are as follows:

Printing--Leonard Thomas, Alfred Warriner and Harry Quartoroli.

Gate--Fred and Will Helberg, and Louis Picetti.

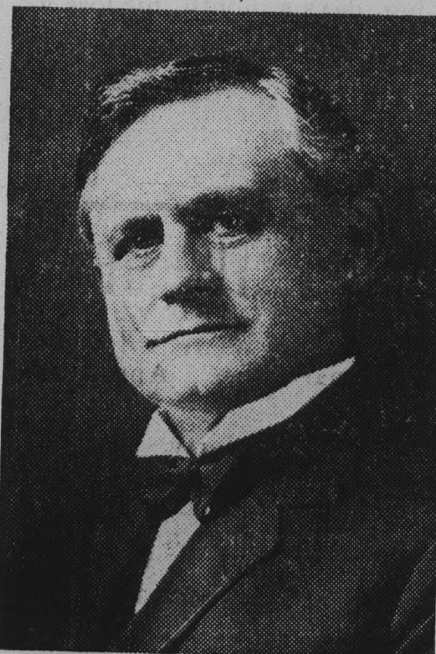

Wheel of Fortune--Ed Peterson and George Goess.

Financial--Fred Hansen, James Modini and Jos. Keiser.

A large attendance is expected, and it is a general consensus of opinion that the Drum Corps is worthy of patronage, even by those who do not wish to participate. The price of admission is but twenty-five cents.

Vagaries of the Proposed Eight Hours a Day Law.

THE HIGH COST OF living is a matter of serious consideration, not to the individual alone, but it is also receiving consideration at the hands of the government. Here in California we are wrestling with the subject, and while we are discussing ways and means of reducing the daily drain on the family purse, there is being forced up to the voters for their verdict at the November election, a universal eight hour law, which, if adopted, would increase the cost of practically every commodity the ordinary consumer is forced to buy. The bill is the creation of the Socialists, and is based on some of its theories and in no sense is it practical or necessary.

Here is how it would serve to increase the cost of living:

Wheat, oats and all food cereals: These are now produced and harvested on an ten hour basis. If this should be reduced to eight hours, the reduction in the output would be twenty per cent and the cost of production increased twenty per cent. This would mean twenty per cent added to the cost to the consumer.

Fruit, potatoes and other vegetables: Now produced and handled on a ten hour basis. The impossibility of handling them in an eight hour day would mean a loss of twenty per cent to the producer and an added cost of twenty per cent to the consumer.

Milk, butter, cheese and eggs: Cows and chickens cannot be trained to accommodate themselves to an eight hour day. The men who work among them are now employed ten hours a day.

If this is reduced to eight hours there would be a loss in the products of twenty per cent and a consequent increase to the consumer of that much.

Meat, groceries and rent: Owing to the restrictions placed on the handling of materials and the conduct of ordinary business, there would be an increase of cost all along the line of twenty per cent. The consumer is always the one who pays the freight in the long run.

Clothing, shoes and other wearing apparel: A universal eight hour law would increase the cost of all materials, would increase the cost of manufacture and would increase the cost to the consumer. A conservative estimate is that this added cost of living would be at least twenty per cent and possibly more.

The average wage of the American, according to the best available statistics is three dollars a day. If his hours of labor are reduced from ten to eight, his income will be decreased twenty per cent. If he is employed eight hours a day, he will be deprived of all income for overtime services.

So the universal eight hour law would hit the finances of the average workingman something like this: Twenty per cent of a daily income of three dollars is sixty cents. Twenty per cent increase in the cost of living based on the income is sixty cents, making a total of one dollar and twenty cents.

That is just what the changes that would be brought about by the adoption of the law would tax the resources of the workingman every day. On a basis of twenty-five working days a month, his loss would be thirty dollars. A proportionately greater loss would come to the man whose income is greater.

Would such a law be of benefit to any one? Figure it out for yourself.

A Message From President Wilson

In a Letter to John T. Waldorf of San Francisco, he Urges the Voters of California to Elect James D. Phelan United States Senator.

PRESIDENT WILSON

JAMES D. PHELAN

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

September 11, 1914.

My dear Mr. Waldorf:

I was most gratified to hear of the nomination of former Mayor James D. Phelan for United States Senator. He has been in close touch with the administration in Washington, and has heartily supported the policies which have been inaugurated for the benefit of the people,—policies which, I am pleased to be informed, have met with very general approval.

The work has been well begun, and it is manifestly important for its successful continuance and prosecution that the administration should not be refused support in the Senate and House at the forthcoming election.

Therefore, I appeal not only to Democrats, but to all independent citizens to rally to the support of the men who have expressed a willingness to sustain the administration and carry on the work designed for the benefit of all. It is not so much mere party success that concerns the average citizen as sound and efficient government, and a party can best deserve credit by giving the best service to the country.

Sincerely yours,

Woodrow Wilson

James D. Phelan—

Three times Mayor of San Francisco. Prevented renewal of franchise of old Geary street railway, San Francisco, thus making present successful municipal line possible.

Appointed first woman who ever held an important public position in San Francisco.

Served as regent of the University of California.

Commissioner to secure re-enactment of the Geary Asiatic Exclusion Law.

Commissioner for Hetch Hetchy legislation before Congress to secure a mountain water supply for the cities around San Francisco Bay.

Commissioner to Europe by appointment of President Wilson to support the United States Government's invitation to foreign countries to participate in the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

Secured appropriation of $500,000 for United States building at the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

Declined ambassadorship to one of the great European nations, preferring service at home.

Led in the fight for a new charter for San Francisco, which insured home rule, civil service reform, responsible government and municipal railroads.

Raised standard of pay for laborers in the city employ.

Head of the San Francisco Relief Committee in the disaster of 1906.

Appointed by the President custodian of the relief fund aggregating $10,000,000.

Worked and spoke before the Legislature for the enactment of an anti-trust land ownership law.

Experienced, capable and untrammeled, he would have but one client in Washington, the people of his native State.

There will be no picture show at the Don Theatre next Friday night, thus making the Tomato Growing Contest Benefit the only attraction.

VINEBURG

Mr. and Mrs. Cedric Cutter visited the bay cities last Sunday.

Fred Batto, O. E. Sohl and Mr. J. Fields transacted business in San Francisco last Thursday.

Mr. D. Colli returned to San Francisco on last Saturday after spending the week at "Bird Nest Cottage."

Last week Jim Small found a tambourine that he lost sixteen years ago. Leave it to Jim to get a move on.

A choice carload of alfalfa hay, one hundred and forty-five bales, arrived at Batto's Spur on Sunday last from Dixon. This is the fourth car this season.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lehrke and Mrs. Ed Gootez, after spending the week end at Vineburg and Los Amigos, returned to the Exposition City on Tuesday.

Mr. Marshall Sohl and Miss A. Hagan, of San Francisco, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Sohl on Sunday last at the Sohl residence in North Vineburg.

Albert Groskopf, Jr., returned home on Thursday evening from his vacation very much pleased with his trip to the principal points of Central California. Al says, "Some State this."

Mr. John Batto returned home Saturday evening, after spending a pleasant week in the bay cities and Sacramento. While in the metropolis he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. August Figone.

The poultry industry is surely booming in this part of the valley, and all our poultry men are making substantial improvements in their yards. Yes, feed may be a little high just now, but chickens must eat, and if they are not fed, the roosters will only want to work eight hours and the hens will grow grumpy for a higher bill of fare. Let us have peace and eggs also. Feed the chicks.

Mr. and Mrs. John Batto and family, accompanied by the Misses Adele Andrieux and Rose Basaglia motored to Concord, Contra Costa County Sunday last, and en route passed through the following points of interest: Napa, Vallejo, Benicia, Martinez and Pacheco, their destination being Napa, where they were pleasantly entertained by relatives, and returned home delighted with the day's trip.

A straight carload of incubators from the world-famed Petaluma Incubator Company, was received at the warehouse of John Batto & Sons, Saturday last. The shipment consisted of twenty modern, up-to-date incubators, with capacity of fourteen thousand, eight hundred eggs. This is the largest single consignment of incubators ever received in this valley by one firm handling poultry supplies.

We have an idea that this will be a "lonesome burg" on Sunday next as most of our society people intend to be present at the second annual picnic of Sonoma Drum Corps, the corps that made Sonoma City famous on Sep. 9th., at Vallejo. A fine program will be rendered, music, dancing and athletic sports of all kinds. One of the main features will be a bass drum solo selected from the Grand Opera "Norma," and will be rendered by happy Bill Helberg of Schellville. The corps may not be booters but they can drum up the valley just the same.

Captain Victor and Chief Engineer Brown of the steamer Pennsylvania, the first vessel to pass through the Panama Canal, direct from New York to San Francisco, in sixteen days and three hours, accompanied by Captain Patterson and Chief Engineer Benson of the Ismah, were the guests of A. W. Lehrke, on Sunday. The party motored up from the metropolis in Mr. Lehrke's new high-power, six-cylinder, sixty-horse power Klien car. Barney Oldfield, Jr., was at the wheel, and the new car made good. The distinguished guests were much pleased with the country they traveled through.

EASY JIM.

GLEN ELLEN

Wm. Creib, of Glen Ellen, is visiting in the metropolis.

Mrs. Thos. Monahan and family are visiting with Mrs. E. Monahan of Glen Ellen.

The Ross Moving Picture Show will be given as usual at Mervyn Hall, Sunday evening.

Don't forget the masquerade to be given on the 17th of next month. A good time and a large attendance is expected.

Mrs. C. J. Poppe, who had the misfortune of falling and breaking two of her ribs last Saturday evening, is at present reports doing nicely under the care of Dr. L. H. Francis. Mrs. Poppe is one of Sonoma Valley's wealthiest and most highly esteemed pioneer residents, and her many friends hope she will speedily recover from the effects of the occurrence.

Miss Roberta Poppe of the San Francisco Normal, and Miss Amy Poppe, of Oakland, are expected home, Friday evening, to remain over Saturday and Sunday.

Glen Ellen was pleasantly surprised at the announcement of the engagement of Miss Amanda Mathews and C. E. Chase, of Graham Canyon. The wedding will take place shortly.

GLEN ELLENITE.

EL VERANO

Miss Olive Clement was a visitor in El Verano, Sunday, from the metropolis.

Mrs. James Baines and daughter, Mrs. George Block, drove to the City of Roses, Monday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Kemp and family autoed from the metropolis to El Verano, Sunday last, to spend the day with friends.

A great many of the El Veranoites are returning from Sacramento, where they had been taking in the Fair. All report having had a good time, and the exhibit as being very fine.

Miss Lucy Block has just recovered from a serious spell of sickness. She is now able to be around again and is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Max Coutts of Kenwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Jensen, of San Francisco, are improving their summer home here by erecting a fine barn, and later on will build a beautiful and comfortable bungalow.

Everybody is looking to have a good time at Oak Grove, next Sunday, with the Sonoma Drum Corps, at their picnic. All societies, it seems, have discovered this popular resort, to be the ideal place to have a good time.

John Byrnes, of the E. K. Wood Lumber Company, of Oakland, was the guest of A. Block, in El Verano, Tuesday, receiving from the latter gentleman an order for several carloads of lumber to be shipped into his new yards soon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Block went on a general tour of the valley, Monday last, to meet and shake hands with their many friends. On the trip, they visited Vineburg, Schellville, Sonoma and the Rhine Farm. Mr. Block united business with pleasure, and did not refuse any orders for lumber from his new yard in El Verano.

Quite an excitement was seen at the Southern Pacific depot here one day last week, when a large rattlesnake made its appearance among some of the waiting passengers, and while an effort was being made to get something with which to exterminate it, the reptile made its getaway underneath the station, where it remained two days, being seen at intervals. Saturday last, on making its appearance, the snake was shot by Emmet Mullen. The reptile, which had four rattles and a button, was, perhaps, shipped in here in a carload of melons.

Monday last was the fifteenth anniversary of the marriage of El Verano's prominent and respected residents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. H. Baines, and the auspicious event was celebrated delightfully on the evening of that date at the home of the worthy couple.

The residence was prettily decorated with greenery and streamers of pink and green crepe paper, the effect being most artistic.

A feature of the evening was a mock ceremony, more firmly cementing the "tie that binds," performed in a humorous and mirth-provoking manner by E. H. Cliff. The bride and groom marched to their stations before the erstwhile "knot-tyer" to the strains of Lohegrin's "Bridal Chorus," beautifully rendered by Mrs. Steckmeyer, the bride being perfectly resplendent in her robes, and flowing veil of mosquito netting. She carried a shower of huge, scarlet dahlias.

During the evening, Mrs. Steckmeyer rendered many pleasing musical numbers, and at midnight a sumptuous supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Baines were the recipients of many elegant gifts of cut glass.

With the coming of the wee sma' hours, the company dispersed, expressing the hope that the future held for Mr. and Mrs. Baines many years to be spent happily together.

Among the guests were: Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Leix, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hiser, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Burmester, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Cliff, Mr. and Mrs. Langer, Mr. and Mrs. J. Steckmeyer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Joost, Mrs. Charles Baines and Miss Hazel Baines.

LOCAL NEWS OF SONOMA AND IMMEDIATE VICINITY

Arthur M. Fisk, who is connected with the Southern Pacific Company, spent a few days last week at the Buchanan residence.

Miss Emily Thomas is a guest at the Toscano Hotel. Miss Thomas, who is a resident of San Francisco, is charmed with the Sonoma Valley.

Raymond G. Poppe took his departure, Tuesday, for Los Banos, where he has accepted a responsible position as manager of a local pharmacy.

Mine Host and Mrs. S. Ciucci, of the Toscano Hotel, and a party of friends enjoyed a motor trip through the Napa Valley, as far as Calistoga, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Louis Kopf and Miss A. Chambeaud, bookkeeper for Kopf & Donovan, Santa Rosa, motored to this city, Sunday last, and spent the day as guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. Breitenbach.

Miss Florence Desart, a popular representative of the Exposition staff, is again on duty, after a two week's vacation, very enjoyably spent in San Francisco, Oakland, and other points about the bay.

About twenty dollars was realized from the social given by the Rebekahs for the benefit of the Odd Fellows' Orphans Home, Thursday night. The affair was a success in every respect, and the program of literary and musical numbers presented was most excellent.

Julius A. Poppe is the proud owner of two valuable, thoroughbred Setter pups, which he is instructing in the art of retrieving, etc. Mr. Poppe is one of Sonoma's best hunters, and with his two well trained dogs will be a desired addition to any hunting party.

Miss Anita Breitenbach returned from her fortnight's vacation, Sunday last, and is again at her post as bookkeeper in the F. T. Duh-ring establishment. This popular Sonoma girl pleasantly spent one week in the Bay City, and the other with her aunt, Mrs. C. Louis Kopf in the City of Roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Koenig, of Boyes' Springs, son and daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Koenig, prominent residents of that district, are receiving the congratulations of their host of friends on the birth of a splendid baby boy. The welcome little stranger made his advent Friday morning of last week.

Dr. W. B. Hayes, Jos. Keechler, S. B. Lewis, H. F. Bates, W. F. Cleve, L. Lamotte, J. A. Kinsella, Frank Koenig, Raoul Em-paran, Emmet Mullen, Joe Ryan, and John Picetti motored to the county seat, Wednesday night, to attend the meeting of the Elks, at which John F. Picetti was initiated as a member of the order. A fine time was had by the party, and the only suggestive criticism made by the latest local acquisition to the fraternity was that the gait of the Elks' goat clearly indicated a mountain born and bred animal.

Frank DeMartini was taken by Deputy Sheriff Ryan to the county jail, Thursday afternoon, to serve a six months' sentence imposed on him by Judge Campbell. DeMartini was arrested Sunday evening, charged with beating his wife, and so brutally was the unfortunate woman assaulted by her inhuman spouse that Judge Campbell felt, as does the rest of the community, that the punishment is fully merited. Yet, true to the spirit of wifehood, Mrs. DeMartini has forgiven the man who had pledged himself to protect her, and is seeking to obtain his release.

Sonoma will lose one of the most popular and worthiest young men in the valley in the departure of Ralph Buchan, who proposes entering the United States Marine Hospital at Mare Island, about November 1st. Ralph will fit himself for the United States Red Cross service, after which he will be assigned to duty.

Frank Griswold, assistant inspector for the Standard Oil Company, was in town, Wednesday, looking after the company's interests and calling on its many patrons. Mr. Griswold found that in Rudolph Wagner, the company has a most efficient manager, and that the business of the local distributing plant is in a flourishing condition.

Reuben Woodworth, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Wakefield Hospital, San Francisco, a fortnight back, came up from the metropolis, Tuesday evening, and will visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Woodworth, until he has recovered his usual good health. Reuben is improving rapidly, we are pleased to note.

O. Wagner, Sonoma's live real estate agent, added to his realty interests here, this week, by the purchase of the Mrs. D. H. Twing property, on First Street East. Mr. Wagner will have the present structure on the lot removed and a modern, up-to-date building is to be erected on the site. Mr. Wagner has not as yet decided as to whether this splendid improvement will be made this fall, or delayed until the early spring.

Otto Brant returned, Wednesday morning, from a two week's sojourn at Sacramento, where he had been in attendance at the State Fair, in which he exhibited several head of his fine, thoroughbred stock. Mr. Brant had the distinction of bearing away a number of trophies, Lady Marcus winning the two first prizes, and two gold medals, Jean Morrison winning two first prizes, Jeta two third prizes. First and second prizes were also won by two colts in the Clydsdale class.

Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Thomson and little son returned from their fortnight's vacation trip, Saturday night, and report an outing very greatly enjoyed. During their absence, Mrs. Thomson visited with Mrs. Milton McGimsey at Siletto, in the Sacramento Valley, while Dr. Thomson and Mr. McGimsey, accompanied by W. J. Clements, of Eden Dale, revelled in the exciting hunt amidst the recesses of the vast government preserves of Trinity County. The gentlemen had kept sport, and succeeded in killing five splendid deer. Before returning home, Dr. and Mrs. Thomson and Mr. Clement visited the State Fair at Sacramento.

Through the reliable and enterprising real estate agency of Wagner & Hiser, the population of the Sonoma Valley has received additional and desirable residents in Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Douglass, late of Tuolumne County, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rickley, of Oakland, the former having purchased the H. Schaffert property, formerly the Geo. Campbell place, comprising twenty acres, and the latter buying the ten-acre Banchero property on the Baxter tract. Mr. and Mrs. Douglass took possession of their new home, Wednesday, and Mr. and Mrs. Rickley will arrive today. The Index-Tribune is glad to welcome the new-comers to our midst and hope and feel sure they will find their lot has been cast in pleasant places.

SONOMA, CALIFORNIA.

SEPTEMBER-22-14.

TO THE PEOPLE OF SONOMA VALLEY:-

At this moment the minds of all men are filled with the awfulness of the war now raging in Europe.

It is not a time to think of any affiliations of race or creed, Saxon, Celt and Slav are warring against Teuton - yet this ought mean nothing to us here in Sonoma. But, that Men are slaughtering Men - this must mean much One thought alone moves every man, woman and child - PEACE.

The President of the United States has set apart Sunday, October 4th., as a day on which to hold meetings in the interest of Peace.

The Board of Trustees of Sonoma City urgently request and desire the presence of every person in Sonoma Valley to take part in the exercises to be held on Sunday evening, October 4th., at 8 P. M. in Union Hall.

WM. VON HACHT

Chairman Board of Trustees

STRUCK AND KILLED BY FREIGHT TRAIN

The tragic death of E. J. Smith, who was struck by the incoming freight train, yesterday morning, at about eight o'clock, horrified the community, when the news of the shocking fatality passed from lip to lip.

Mr. Smith, whose farm adjoins that of Dunn Brothers, south of town, had driven in to purchase feed from John Batto & Sons, and was starting on the home trip, as the train came thundering along. The unfortunate man evidently believed he could clear the crossing in time, and was struck and hurled possibly some fifty feet upwards, landing against the track and the moving train, by which, it is believed, he was dragged some distance. His body was not badly mutilated, the injuries centering in the bruising of the head and breaking of the left arm.

The horse was thrown about forty-five feet, striking and breaking a telegraph pole by the force of the impact and being instantly killed.

The coroner's jury exonerated the train crew, the engineer's statement being to the effect that he had not expected Mr. Smith would attempt to cross the tract, knowing the danger.

Mr. Smith, who had resided in this valley for several years, was very highly respected. He was a native of Pennsylvania and aged sixty-eight years. He leaves a wife, to whom heartfelt sympathy is extended.

Radish Club at Boyes Springs

There's to be one grand, big time at Boyes' Springs tonight and to-morrow, when the popular resort will entertain the Radish Club, an organization comprising sixty or more prominent business and professional men of San Francisco. "Pop" Roebert, who has friends galore throughout the valley, and who is chief officer—King—of the Club, will direct the "big doings," and is to be assisted by Dr. Ragan (James the First), and Angelo Byrne, (Prime Minister). Tonight's program will include dancing, and a large number of Sonoma residents are planning to attend and enjoy the splendid hospitality to be extended. Tomorrow (Sunday) about the noon hour, a barbecue is to be served, and the feast is calculated to tempt the most epicurean palate. Between the "doings" at Boyes Springs, and the Sonoma Drum Corps' picnic at Oak Grove, Sonoma will certainly be a lonesome town to-morrow.

Quite a number of the friends of Mrs. J. A. Landsborough were very pleasantly entertained at her picturesque home, Locust Grove, last Saturday. The afternoon proved a most enjoyable one for the ladies, as Mrs. Landsborough is a delightful hostess.

A number of Schellville friends accepted the hospitality of the Kearney family at El Verano, on Wednesday evening of last week, and the time passed quickly and pleasantly, and before the farewells were spoken, tempting refreshments were served.

Mrs. Henry J. Wicker won the laurels at Thursday afternoon's meeting of the Bridge Whist Club, which was held at the home of Mrs. Harold Pauli. Four dainty doilies was the trophy presented the fortunate winner. Mrs. Pauli served her guests with the most delicious of refreshments.
